

GENERAL POLICY FOR HEALTH, SAFETY & WELFARE AT WORK

In recognition of the Health and Safety at Work Act of 1974 and other legislation relating to Health and Safety, Bluemoon will take all reasonable measures as far as practically possible and take full responsibility to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all personnel and that of any photo subjects whilst at work.

Bluemoon recognises that the control of all health and safety matters arising from its work activities is not only an essential feature of its efficient operation, but is also a civil and statutory obligation. It is Bluemoon's policy to:

- Act within the framework of the law and good practice, safe and healthy working conditions, equipment and conditions of work, for the photographer, models, members of the public and others who are affected and working with Bluemoon. All work will be carried out in a safe manner to prevent accidents.

Bluemoon takes the issue of Health and Safety extremely seriously, intending to provide a safe working environment by:

1. Providing safe systems of work
2. When office based, using safe office equipment
3. Using safe and well maintained camera and flash equipment
4. Working safely on location
5. Transporting all personnel and equipment safely
6. Providing adequate and sufficient information, instruction and advice to others

Health and Safety remains the responsibility of Bluemoon and its Health and Safety Policy complies with the current legal requirements and will be updated as appropriate to take account of future developments or changes in UK or EC legislation.

Bluemoon undertakes to review this policy on a regular basis, and in the light of new knowledge, and changing legislation. This review will take place at a maximum of twelve months of the date shown below.
